Putting things right

WHAT HAPPENS IF I MAKE A MISTAKE?

You said, we listened

Orchard Mead is a place that is always growing, changing and improving

We always put measures in place to support your development and part of that is that there must be consequences if rules are not followed. This is not to be 'mean' or single anyone out, it is necessary to ensure everyone can learn in a safe environment and without disruption. Correcting your behaviour is telling you 'we care about you, and we want to show you how to make changes to improve and be your best self'.

With that in mind, we have made some alterations based on feedback and observations this year.

Changes to C3

C3 removal now lasts for the rest of the lesson.

C3 staff will decide if, at the end of the period, you are ready to return to learning because you:

Get to the C3 room within 5 minutes

Follow all staff instructions

Complete all the work provided

This is to maximise learning time and stop you from missing out

You will still have to complete a detention in your own time

C3 in P2,4, Reading II or P6 – stay in C3 room for 15 mins

C3 in P1, P3, Reading I – you must come back to C3 room at break, lunch or after school to sit the 15 mins.

If you do not attend at break or lunch, HOYs will collect you P6. repeated non attendance will result in a further sanction.

Further steps

What is truancy?

Orchard Mead defines truancy as a student who is NOT in lesson by the time the late bell has sounded, without adult permission.

If you are caught truanting, you will need to be in C3 for the rest of the day and will lose 3 oath points

This is for everyone's safety. If we do not know where you are, we cannot act to keep you safe. So we need to place you under the eye of an adult for the rest of the day, as you have shown that we cannot trust you.

If you get two C3s in a day, you will have to be in C3 for the rest of the day. This is because C3 is supposed to be a reset room, to allow you to ready yourself for learning again. If you go back to lessons and behave in the same way, you are still not ready to learn and so need longer to reset. You will also lose oath points.
